

Additional Conclave Dates, July 22nd and 23rd Itinerary:

Monday -

11:30 a.m. - Meet at Headwaters Spring at City Park, and go to Pluto Caves, an enormous lava tube on the north side of Mt. Shasta. Coming from an eruption 6,000 years ago, this was once a home for the Sasquatch/Bigfoot. Giant White Owls and other animals still inhabit the caves. This northerly location gives us an opportunity to see the high desert region of Mt. Shasta, with amazing views. Please bring flashlights, headlamps or lanterns for the caves.

2:30 p.m. - Gem Gathering near one of Mt. Shasta's oldest cinder cones. We will collect, chrysocolla, azurite, malachite, chalcopryite, pink granite and more. Finding beautiful treasures at the foot of Mt. Shasta, that you can keep!

4:00 p.m. - Gateway Peace Garden Meditation, connecting with the elemental kingdom and anchoring the light in this sacred place.

5:30 p.m. - dinner break

Monday and/or Tuesday Night Camping on the mountain -

It is optional if you want to camp overnight, high on the mountain, Saint Germain will have a base-camp set-up at one of his favorite spots. Please dress warm! There will be tents, shade canopy, stove, water and chai tea. Please be equipped with your own sleeping gear, extra blanket, food and extra water. Rentals for any gear is in the town of Mt. Shasta, easily accessible at "Base Camp" and other stores.

Tuesday -

11:30 a.m. - Meet at Lower Panther Meadow parking lot

12:00 p.m. - Medicine Wheel Ceremony with Invocations to the Four Directions and honoring the Native American Indians

1:00 p.m. - Ancient Native American Sacred Lodge Site. We will explore and have our own experience at this Native American Indian Ceremonial Site and receive healing from the sacred spring, and give blessings to the water, and to the world. Meditation is encouraged at this sacred site.

2:30 p.m. - Bigfoot (Sasquatch/Yeti) Ceremony and Invocations at Red Fir Flat. We will connect with our extended family of Bigfoot, or what is locally called "Takilmusie". Saint Germain has had many experiences with "Bigfoot" and one of his many books is about Bigfoot .

4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. - Meet at the "Top Parking Lot" for Interstellar Communication, Sun Ritual and Healing Ceremony. Music with didgeridoo, dulcimer, shruti box, djembe and other musical instruments played by Saint Germain. Closing circle and sealing the energies with a multitude of celestial salutes.
